CHILD ABDUCTION

Abducted From: Clearwater, Florida
Date Abducted: December 31, 2001
Recovered: Sumter County
Date Recovered: January 01, 2002

UPDATE

The Clearwater Police Department is investigating the abduction of a five (5) year old boy from the playground of his apartment complex on December 31, 2001. The child was released in Sumter County, Florida on January 01, 2002.

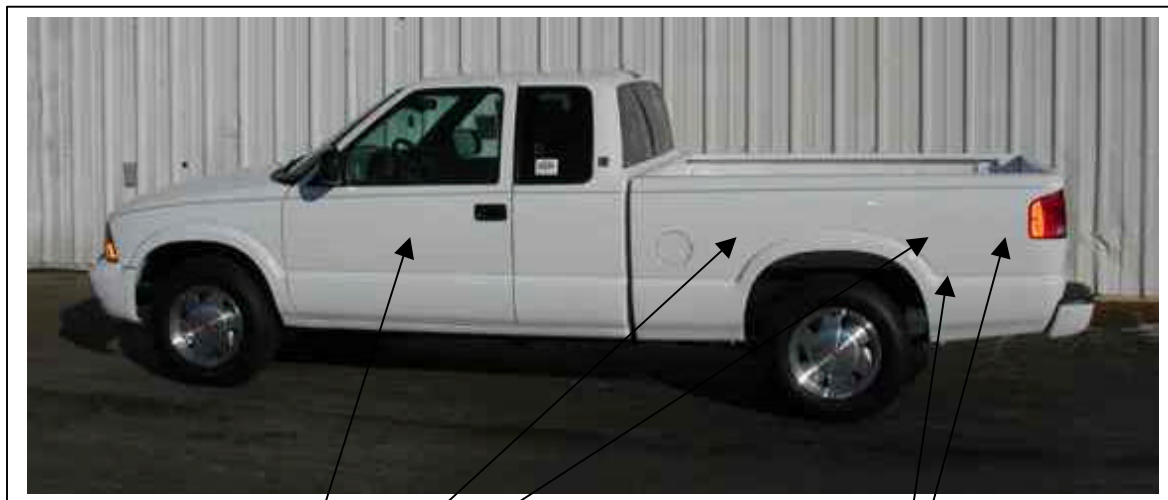

The suspect is described as a white or Hispanic male, 20-40 yoa, 5'5" – 5'8", thin/medium build, clean shaven, black short wavy hair about 1-2 inches on top, hairy arms, chest, and legs.

The suspect vehicle is described as a white pick-up truck, not full size, with an extended cab. The vehicle had light tint to the windows, gray interior, and was extremely dirty. The vehicle had an automatic transmission and a back slide-type window. The suspect vehicle had a silver or gray box in the bed similar to a toolbox that was the width of the bed. The vehicle also had unknown type ice cream stickers/decal designs on the side and possibly a wave and/or Stone Cold Steve Austin imprinted along the rear quarter panels. (see attachment of similar type vehicle)

If anyone have any knowledge of this case, the identity of the suspect, or the location of the suspect's vehicle, please contact the Clearwater Police Department immediately. The Clearwater Police Department is requesting that other agencies check their files for any reports containing vehicle information similar to the suspect's vehicle.
