DETECTIVE STEPHEN BOHLING NAMED AMERICAN LEGION NATIONAL LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER OF THE YEAR

Clearwater, Fla. – Detective Stephen Bohling was named the American Legion National Law Enforcement Officer of the year by American Legion Post #7 in Clearwater, Florida. Detective Bohling was recognized for his dedication to the law enforcement profession, his commitment to serving the citizens of Clearwater and his support to surrounding law enforcement agencies and communities.

Detective Bohling commits a considerable amount time as the Clearwater Police Department Honor Guard Commander. This is a voluntary, unpaid position which must be able to respond at a moment's notice. Bohling oversees the department's 21-member team and is responsible for coordination and support of law enforcement funeral services and other ceremonies. Bohling has coordinated Honor Guard support and presence at seven local and statewide funerals and multiple events last year. He is also responsible for the Honor Guard's new uniforms and equipment.
