CLEARWATER POLICE JOIN COMMUNITY IN ANTI-CRIME MARCH

Clearwater, Fla. – The Clearwater Police Department will join members of the North Greenwood Community Coalition (NGCC) and other residents in a march against drugs, crime and other violence. The RAV (Rally Against Violence) March takes place this Saturday at 11:00 a.m.

“Although we have seen a reduction in crime overall, we want to continue to see a decline. A strong partnership between the police department and the community is a factor in making that happen,” said Chief Anthony Holloway. Chief Holloway and members of his Command Staff will participate in the march.

The RAV March includes a mock funeral with tomb stones to symbolize the repercussions of violence in the community.
