SERGEANT JUAN TORRES RECOGNIZED FOR OUTSTANDING POLICE SERVICE

Clearwater, Fla. – Clearwater Police Department Sergeant Juan Torres was recognized by the Clearwater Civitan Club with the Outstanding Police Service Award. Sergeant Torres was selected for his professionalism, dedication and commitment to the community.

Sergeant Torres is responsible for the oversight of the AmeriCorps Clearwater program, the high school internship program, and participates in the SAFE KIDS Coalition to campaign for bicycle safety and child car restraint use. Through these programs, he has demonstrated a commitment to developing the youth in our community.

Sergeant Torres also serves on the Hispanic Leadership Council and supervises the department's Hispanic Outreach Program. Through these activities he assists Hispanic citizens to get the resources needed to overcome language barriers, education obstacles and access to health care.

Sergeant Torres also demonstrates his commitment to the community outside of the walls of the Clearwater Police Department. He volunteers his time for community service projects, such as Clearwater Paint Your Heart Out.

“Sergeant Torres demonstrates all the characteristics worthy of this award through his commitment to our community and the citizens we serve,” said Clearwater Police Chief Anthony Holloway.

Sergeant Torres has been with the Clearwater Police Department for 19 years.
