CLEARWATER POLICE PARTNERS WITH LOCAL AGENCIES TO RAISE FUNDS FOR DISPLACED AND DISADVANTAGED CHILDREN

Clearwater, Fla. — The Clearwater Police Department is partnering with local agencies on two holiday fundraisers. Each program will help raise money for gifts for children in need.

CPD is partnering with Clearwater Neighborhood Housing Services for Holiday Cheer. This program was created to help alleviate the impact the recession, especially on disadvantaged children. Monetary donations and/or new gifts will be accepted. Unwrapped new toys can be dropped off at the Clearwater Police Department and monetary donations can be made through the Clearwater Neighborhood Housing Services. For more information contact Sgt. Wilton Lee at 562-4310.

CPD is also partnering with Society for the Enrichment and Education of Kids (SEEK), Everybody's Tabernacle Homeless Emergency Project (HEP) and Religious Community Services (RCS) Grace House for the Children's Christmas Gift Distribution. This charity event focuses on providing gifts for displaced homeless children. Unwrapped new toys can be dropped off at the Clearwater Police Department and monetary donations can be made through the Davis Foundation – SEEK. For more information, contact Sgt. Ben McBride at 562-4120.

There will be a toy collection box in the lobby at police headquarters:

Clearwater Police Department
645 Pierce Street
Clearwater, Florida 33756

All donations are tax deductible. The deadline for donations is December 15.

Any members of the media interested in covering either event should contact Elizabeth Watts for more information. Gifts for both charity events will be distributed on December 19.
