HOME FOR SALE BURGLARIZED WHILE HOMEOWNERS SHOW PROPERTY

WHO: Suspects: Two white males between the ages of 30 and 40
Third suspect unknown
Vehicle Description: Gold, late model mid-sized Cadillac SUV

Victim: Michael McClain

WHAT: Residential Burglary
Miscellaneous Jewelry

WHEN: November 20, 2010
4:25 p.m.

WHERE: Clearwater Beach, Fla.

SUMMARY: Two suspects knocked on the homeowner's door. They said they saw the "for sale" sign on the front yard and were interested in seeing the home. The homeowner allowed them to come and proceeded to show them the home. While the homeowner was showing the property, one of the men was on the phone and was speaking in a foreign language. He said he was telling his mother about the home. However, the man was on the phone with a third suspect who slipped in through the unlocked front door when the homeowner took the suspects outside to show them the backyard. The third, unidentified suspect stole several pieces of jewelry while inside the home. The homeowner didn't realize his property was missing until after the men left and they contacted police. The investigation continues...
