CLEARWATER POLICE DEPARTMENT LAUNCHES OPERATION HOME RUN

Clearwater, Fla. – The Clearwater Police Department (CPD) is teaming up with the Clearwater Threshers to send 900 at-risk youths to minor league baseball games. CPD will work with local youth organizations and church groups to send 30 children to 30 ball games. For every Threshers home game on Thursday, Friday or Saturday, CPD will sponsor a group of children who will be seated in the “Clearwater Police Department Corner” at Bright House Network Field.

“The goal is to get kids off the streets and give them something fun to do. This is an opportunity for the police department to reach out to our at-risk youth, build a positive relationship and help keep them out of trouble at the same time,” said Clearwater Police Chief Anthony Holloway.

This is the second week of Operation Home Run. This Friday, a group of 30 children will attend the Clearwater Threshers – Lakeland Tigers game.
