POLICE SERGEANT JUAN TORRES PROMOTED TO LIEUTENANT

Clearwater, Fla. – Clearwater Police Sergeant Juan Torres was promoted to the rank of Police Lieutenant during a ceremony at Police Headquarters this afternoon. “Lieutenant Torres will be a good addition to the management staff. He is dedicated, professional and has mastered many skills during his diverse career,” said Clearwater Chief of Police Anthony Holloway.

Lieutenant Torres is a near 20-year veteran with the Clearwater Police Department. Torres has served in various capacities including Special Operations, Hispanic Outreach, Robbery/Homicide, Burglary, Field Training and Community Policing. Throughout his career, Torres has received several awards, including Supervisor of the Year and Detective of the Year, in addition to many other internal and external commendations and recognitions.

Torres will oversee the Office of Professional Standards. His promotion takes effect September 24, 2011.
