POLICE SERGEANTS BENJAMIN MCBRIDE AND BRIAN MCAULEY PROMOTED TO LIEUTENANT; TWO TEAMS RECOGNIZED

Clearwater, Fla. – Clearwater Police Sergeant Brian McAuley and Benjamin McBride were promoted to the rank of Police Lieutenant during a ceremony at Police Headquarters this afternoon. “Both Lieutenants McAuley and McBride bring enthusiasm, vision and direction, and know how to motivate others – all critical skills as the department and city undergo changes” said Clearwater Chief of Police Anthony Holloway.

Lieutenant Benjamin McBride is a 25-year veteran with the Clearwater Police Department. McBride has served in various capacities including Community Policing Supervisor, Personnel and Training Supervisor, Patrol Supervisor and Vice & Narcotics. McBride was also the founder of the Good Act Awards, a summer pass for Clearwater recreation centers awarded to children who perform good acts in their school or community. Throughout his tenure, McBride has received several awards, including Officer of the Year and the Combat Cross. Lieutenant McBride will be assigned to the Patrol Division as the District II Commander.

Lieutenant Brian McAuley has been with the Clearwater Police Department for 18 years. McAuley has served as a Robbery Unit Supervisor, Patrol Supervisor, Field Training Supervisor and Vice & Narcotics Detective. He is also the Assistant Commander of the SWAT Team. He has received numerous recognitions and accolades, including a Medal of Excellence. Lieutenant McAuley will be assigned to the Patrol Division as the District II Commander.

Both promotions will take effect, January 15, 2011.

Chief Anthony Holloway also presented the Chief’s Unit Citation to two teams: the Crime Analysis Unit and the Clearwater Police Honor Guard.
