WHAT: Hit and Run Crash

WHERE: Keene & Union Street

WHEN: November 1, 2011

SUMMARY: Clearwater Police responded to a crash involving a Hillsborough County Deputy in a marked cruiser at Keene and Union Street at 5:23 a.m. Deputy Isaiah Naylor, 23, was off duty and headed home when a 15-year-old female driving a 2010 Mistubishi turned left into oncoming traffic and T-boned his cruiser. The juvenile driver fled the scene. Officers located her vehicle a short time later in a Walgreen's parking lot at Highland and Union. A K-9 unit tracked the suspect to the MacAlpine apartments where she was arrested for leaving the scene with property damage and no valid DL. At this time none of the charges are felonies, so the juvenile's name will not be released. The deputy was not injured in the crash.
