SUMMARY: The Clearwater Police Department received multiple complaints of prostitution and narcotics sales at the above listed location. Vice & Narcotics detectives determined the suspect was operating an escort business and providing prostitutes to clientele. Undercover detectives conducted several transactions with the suspect to solicit prostitutes. The suspect also engaged in cocaine sales during these instances. A search warrant was executed at the suspect's residence and he was taken into custody without incident. Cocaine, oxycodone and marijuana were found in the residence, along with a large amount of currency.
