SUMMARY:

The victim met one of the suspects, Melody Sanders, while in jail and the two decided to hang out when they got out. On July 26, the victim met Sanders and another female (a witness whose name will not be released). Sanders lured the victim to the 2600 block of Seville Boulevard where Timothy Miller and Chase Brown battered the victim and stole his pants which contained cash. The victim received serious but non-life-threatening injuries.

During the course of the investigation, detectives identified the three suspects. Both Sanders and Miller were located and arrested. Brown is currently at large and wanted for Robbery.
